

Pray for MILD MAY

Winter 2025-26

If we walk by the ways we have been led by God over decades of history at Mildmay, there is a symbolic sense of always walking into new possibilities at any stage of the ongoing journey. That is where we are now as winter and the turn of the year dawns both here in the United Kingdom and in Uganda...

This Winter and Epiphany Blessing, written by Jan Richardson and taken from CIRCLE of GRACE, A Book of Blessings for the Seasons, is poignant for us as we face the next challenging chapter of offering life in all its fullness to those we are privileged to meet and work with on a daily basis... namely our patients, clinicians, volunteers, trustees, partners, stakeholders, commissioners and staff.

Call it one of the mercies of the road ahead -
That we see it only by stages as it opens up before us, as it comes to our keeping, step by step.

There is nothing for it but to go,
And by our going, making the vows the pilgrim takes - to be faithful to the next step, to rely on more than the map, to heed the signposts of intuition and dream, to follow the star that only you recognise, to keep an open eye for the wonders that attend the path, to press on beyond distractions and beyond who would tempt us from the way. ...

Jesus said "I have come that you may have life in all its fullness"

John 10:10

A graphic for Mildmay's 40th anniversary. It features the text 'MILDMAY at 40 1985-2025' in white, bold, sans-serif font. The text is overlaid on a background of a light-colored brick wall. To the right of the text, there are several green, 3D-style curved shapes that resemble stylized leaves or a path.

There are vows that only you will know:
The secret promises for your particular part and the new ones you will need to make when the road is revealed by turns you could never have foreseen.

Keep them, break them and make them again.
Each promise becomes part of the path.
Each choice creates the road that will take us to the place where at least we will kneel to offer the gift most needed.

The gift that only you can give,
before turning to go home by another way.

So Lord, hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you, dear Lord.

As we stand on the threshold of a new era for Mildmay, we are beginning a new chapter of care overseas. Please keep us in your prayers and if you are able,
support this work so we can reach those who need us most.
